Copenhagen, September 12.

THE Danes have unrigged and brought into Port moſt of their Fleet; and the Troops that were employed in Norway are gone into Quarters. The King of Denmark and the Prince Royal came hither on the 8th Inſtant, and this Morning returned again to Fredericksbourg. We have not had any Advices here from Sir John Norris ſince he ſailed from Hanoe.

Hanover, Sept. 5, O. S. On the 3d Inſtant the Earl of Sunderland arrived here; and had the Honour to dine with His Majeſty the next Day at Herrenhauſen.

Hambourg, Sept. 15, N. S. We have an Account, that Sir John Norris with the Squadron of Britiſh Men of War under his Command, having been joyned by Rear-Admiral Hoſier with ſeven Men of War, ſailed from Hanoe the 3d Inſtant; that he paſſed by Carlſhaven at Nine the next Morning; and it was not doubted he would that Day be joyned by the Swediſh Fleet commanded by Admiral Sparre, which was cruiſing off Carlſcroon in Expectation of his coming. The Wind was very fair and a freſh Gale, ſo that he could not fail of arriving in the Heighth of Stockholm by the 6th at fartheſt. The Czar of Muſcovy with his Fleet of Men of War was on the 31ſt paſt in the Haff of Ahland; and his Gallies with the Land Forces were then in the Neighbourhood of Stockholm.

Hague, Sept. 19. All the Towns of the Province of Holland, Amſterdam only excepted, have newly given their Conſent to M. Burmania's going Ambaſſadour Extraordinary from this State to the Queen of Sweden. The other ſix Provinces had choſen him for this Embaſſy ſome time ago: So that he is now preparing to ſet out for Sweden in a few Days.

From on board His Majeſty's Ship the Ipſwich in St. Helen's Road, Sept. 10. The Wind coming up Yeſterday at South East by South, we ſailed from Spithead, and came to an Anchor here, where we were joined this Morning by all the Tranſports. Since which, the Wind is come about to the Weſtward.

Whereas the following Perſons late Invalid Out-Penſioners belonging to the Royal Hoſpital near Chelſea, being found fit for Garriſon-Duty, and accordingly appointed to the Regiment and ſeveral Independent Companies of Invalids, and been ſubſiſted as ſuch, have deſerted that Service; theſe are to give Notice, that they are for the ſaid Neglect ſtruck off from the Penſion for ever, to the Intent that all Perſons be forewarned from lending them Money on Account of any Penſion they may pretend to.
